(The scene is set on a battlefield. The Philistine and Israelite armies are camped there, daring each other to start something. David walks in and goes to Eliab).

David: Hi, big brother. Dad told me to bring you some food and see how Army life is treating you.

Saul: Come on everybody, let's go.

(The two armies get up and start yelling at each other. Then Goliath swaggers in).

Goliath: Hey, did you Israelites come here to fight Philistines? Well here I am – a real live Philistine. You guys pick somebody tough and have him fight me. If he kills me, you win the war. Of course if I win, then we win the war. Ha ha!

(The Israelites run away from Goliath).

Israelite 1: Did you see that guy? He's ten feet tall. And that spear is as big as a telephone pole.

Goliath: Chicken! Every last one of you is chicken!!

Israelite 2: King Saul has offered a big reward for anyone who fights him – and wins.

David: Somebody should go out there and fight him.

Eliab: What are you doing here, David? You just want to see a battle! A lot of help you're going to be!

David: King Saul, I want to fight that giant.

Saul: Are you kidding? You're just a kid, and Goliath has been a soldier all his life.

David: I've killed lions and bears when I was taking care of my father's sheep. God saved me from them, and God will save me from Goliath.

Saul: All right, you can do it. Here, you can use my armor.

(David puts on Saul's armor. He can hardly walk, it is so heavy).

David: I'm not used to all this. I'll do it my way.

(David takes the armor off. He bends down and picks up some stones).

Goliath: Can't you come up with anybody better than this? I'm gonna kill you dead, boy.

David: You've got a sword and spear, but I've got God on my side. God will help me and show the world that He is all anybody needs.

(Goliath raises his spear. David throws a rock with his sling and hits Goliath. Goliath falls down. David takes Goliath's sword and cuts his head off).

David: Look, you Philistines. We're beating you because God helps us.

(The Philistines run off with the Israelites chasing them)
