

Joseph is thrown into prison.

The baker and cupbearer have dreams.

God reveals the dreams to Joseph and Joseph interprets them.

The baker is released from prison but forgets about Joseph.

Pharaoh dreams about cows and grain.

The baker tells Pharaoh about Joseph being able to interpret dreams.

Joseph is released from prison and interprets Pharaoh's dream.

Pharaoh is so impressed with Joseph's wisdom that he makes him ruler of Egypt.

Joseph helps prepare Egypt for 7 years of famine.