

Acting on Faith

In the table below there are examples of people in the bible who acted on their faith. Next to each example, write a similar way you can act on your faith (the first one is done for you).

BIBLICAL EXAMPLE	MY EXAMPLE
Abraham, in obedience to God, willingly offered his son Isaac as a sacrifice.	I can give up something I love, like my favorite possession, if God asks me to.
Noah trusted that God would send a flood and spent many years building the ark.
Esther boldly approached King Xerxes, at the threat of death, to save God's people.
Daniel continued praying to God even though it was against the law and punishable by death.
Joseph (Jacob's son) continued telling others about God and making right decisions even though he was thrown into prison because of false accusations.
Matthew gave up his greedy occupation as a tax collector after meeting Jesus and becoming one of his disciples.
