

An illustration of Noah's Ark. Noah, an elderly man with a long white beard and a turban, stands on the deck of the ark, looking towards the sky. He is surrounded by his three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Shem is on the left, Ham is in the foreground with his hands raised in prayer, and Japheth is on the right. The ark is a large wooden structure with a ramp leading up to the deck. The sky is blue with white clouds.

Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was | great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. The Lord was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. The Lord said, "I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the sky; for I am sorry that I have made them." But Noah found favor in the eyes of the Lord.

These are the records of the generations of Noah.

Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his time; Noah walked with God. Noah became the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

² The Lord said, "I will blot out man whom I have cre-a-ted from the face of the land, from man to an-i-mals to creep-ing things and to birds of the sky; for I am sor-ry that I have made them." But No-ah found fa-vor in the eyes of the Lord.

These are the re-cords of the gen-er-a-tions of No-ah. No-ah was a right-eous man, blame-less in his time; Noah walked with God.

No-ah be-came the fath-er of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Ja-pheth. Then God said to No-ah, "The end of all flesh has come be-fore Me; for the earth is filled with vi-o-lence be-cause of them; and be-hold, I am a-bout to des-troy them with the earth.

4 Now it came about in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the water was dried up from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the surface of the ground was dried up. In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. Then God spoke to Noah, saying, "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you. Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you, birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth." So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.
