

The Babel Rap

Lots and lots of people
all around.
God said “Go”
The people said “No,
We’re gonna build a tower
up to the sky.”

God looked down
with a frown.
“I said Go,
the people said no
and they’re building a tower
up to the sky”.

God sent confusion
in their mouth.
Some went north
and some went south.
And no one’s building a tower
up to the sky.
