
“Thankful November”

Children’s Sermon on 1 Thessalonians 5:16-19

Children’s Message: A Month of Thanksgiving

The Importance of Gratitude and Thankful Hearts

Main Objective: Children are often reminded to use polite manners and say “thank you,” but it’s important to also encourage them to live with grateful hearts. We often think about gratitude as we prepare for the Thanksgiving holiday, but quickly pass through to the eager greed of Christmas wishes and celebrations. This message can serve as a positive reminder in any season to be mindful and thankful for all God blesses us with.

Law/Gospel Theme: God has given us blessings in all things, positive and negative, challenging and joyful. The most wonderful thing He gives us is Christ. The Gospel of salvation is a blessing that we should remember with thanksgiving every day of the year.

Optional Materials: Calendars; stereotypical Thanksgiving items (cans, food, turkey, etc.), other holiday items (optional).

Bible Passage: 1 Thessalonians 5:16-19; various Psalms of thanksgiving.

Hello, children of God! Do you know what month we are in now? (Allow for responses)

That's right; it's November! What are some fun things that happen in the month of November? It gets a little colder, and we see leaves fall...and at the end of the month we have a special holiday! What do you like to do for Thanksgiving? (Allow responses)

Ooh, yes! I like to make yummy treats (hold up food items or decorations) and put up fun decorations, and I eat lots of food, and sometimes play a game with my family...but you know, what do you think is the most important part of Thanksgiving? Well, it's sort of in the name...it's about being thankful! Not just thankful for turkeys and parties, but for lots of things.

You know, the Bible talks a lot about why it is important to be thankful. God wants us to live with joy, and to be contented for the things that we have in our lives. This also keeps us from wanting things that we don't have or that we don't need. And we want to appreciate the blessings He has given us. What are some things you are thankful for? (Allow for some student responses).

I'm thankful for lots of fun things, too. And sometimes I like to remember those things when I'm feeling down, or when I am having a hard time with something. In fact, I want to give you a special challenge. I want you to try keeping track of all of these things you are thankful for! Can I show you something? (Hold up a calendar)

Here is a calendar... on this calendar, I write down things that are special. I like to write one thing for every day. So I might write a person who was helpful on that particular day, or something fun I got to do, or anything I appreciated. And then at the end of the month, I can look back and remember all of those happy things that I was able to feel thankful for. That's another great thing about having hearts of gratitude. It helps us look back and appreciate what God has done. In fact, you can keep this up and write down a note of thankfulness every day! It doesn't have to stop at the end of this month.

So I will give you this little paper calendar (hand out printed November calendars), and I encourage you to take this home and hang it up on your fridge or a wall somewhere. Every day, just write a word or two to remind you of something positive that you are thankful for. Don't forget to give thanks to God while you're writing, too! Why don't we thank Him with a word of prayer right now?
