In today's crazy world, we are bombarded with so many messages it's hard to know what to believe or who to trust. What can we do to help our kids understand the importance of truth and live their lives based on faith? A powerful way to do this is to use affirmations.

I've compiled these short Christian affirmations that can easily be written down on an index card (or several) and be repeated throughout the week. Print this page and get started today.

Let me know if you enjoy this resource and I'll have our team put together a printable version of these affirmations on cards.
