Teaching notes

How to use these cards

1. Hand one card to each child at the start of class, and ask for it back at the end — or let them take it home. Every sheet holds different verses, not copies of one. For a whole class on one verse, print one teacher set and display that week's card, or print that card's page for each child.
2. Use the 52-week plan on page 16 if you want one verse a week for a year. It starts with the shortest verses, so a new class builds confidence first.
3. Watch for the small mark. A card that says "part of the verse" is showing one clause. Open a Bible and read the rest. A few cards start mid-sentence or end on a comma; they are exact, not mistyped.
4. Pair the two prayer cards. Matthew 21:22 promises that believing prayer is answered; 1 John 5:14 adds that we ask according to God's will.

5 simple ways to help kids memorize

1. Say it, then rub out a word. Write the verse on a board, read it together, erase one word, read it again — until the board is empty and the class is not. (Whiteboard and marker.)
2. Put a motion to it. Give every few words a hand movement. Children who will not recite will still do the motions, and the words come with them.
3. Draw it. Have each child sketch the verse instead of copying it. Drawing makes them decide what it means.
4. Cut it up and rebuild it. Cut a spare card into word strips and race to put the verse back in order.
5. Make it a game with a soft ball. Say the next word each time you catch it. Drop it, start again. (Soft ball.)

Each has a full write-up, free, on Ministry-to-Children.com — search "memory verse games".

Which verses suit which age

The cards are not split by age, so a mixed class works from one set. Go by length:

- Preschool and toddlers — the 46 cards of eight words or fewer. Start with "Jesus wept." and "God is love"
- Kindergarten to grade 2 — most of the set, nine to 15 words.
- Grade 3 and up — the same cards, plus the 13 longer verses on pages 13 to 14.

The 52-week plan

A verse of the week

One verse a week for a year, drawn from the cards in this set, shortest first — so a class that has never memorized anything starts somewhere easy.

Start any week of the year. Luke 2:11 and Matthew 28:6 are cards in this set but they are not in the 52 weeks below. If you want the seasons to line up, replace that week's verse with the seasonal card — Luke 2:11 on the Sunday before Christmas, Matthew 28:6 on Easter Sunday — then carry on down the list. The two verses you replaced can be taught any week you like.

Where a card is marked "part of the verse", the line below is one clause of it. The reference tells you where to open a Bible and read the rest.

- Week 1 · John 11:35 — Jesus wept.
- Week 2 · 1 John 4:8 — God is love

When the verse needs a lesson around it

A verse sticks better when the class heard the story it came from that morning. Our curriculum lessons are built around a memory verse. The verse is printed in the leader's guide in both BSB and KJV, and it runs through the story, the activity and the take-home page.

Start with the free sample pack. Print it and teach it.
